A Tremendous Undertaking: OWING to industrial inactivity with which Marlinton has had to cope during the past four months, H. Kelmenson finds himself with a large stock on hand, with many bills coming due; has engaged the services of the Baltimore, Mercantile Co., of Baltimore, Md., to conduct a sale upon his stock of high grade dry - goods, clothing, hats, shoes, furnishings, notions, millinery, groceries, queensware, etc.

At the greatest slaughter of prices ever heard of in West Virginia. No sale or nothing like it ever happened in Marlinton before. Nothing held back. Every article in the store will be sacrificed to the people of Marlinton and vicinity. No wage earner can afford to overlook this great money saving opportunity in due justice to himself and family. Take advantage of this money saving opportunity and purchase the merchandise right now. Remember this entire stock must be converted into cash within 15 days. Come expecting bargains. Come prepared. Our word for it, you'll not be disappointed. Our stock is clean, new and reliable and we positively guarantee you satisfaction on every purchase or we will give you back the cash.

Selling off begins April 15th, and continued for fifteen days at H. KELMENSON'S, West end of county bridge, Marlinton, West Virginia. B. A. Brasley in charge
